Boone County Fire Protection District to Offer Bond Question on April Ballot

The Boone County Fire Protection District board of directors has called for a NO TAX INCREASE bond election to be held during the general municipal election Tuesday, April 4, 2023. The following question will be posed to the voters on the April ballot:

“Shall Boone County Fire Protection District, Boone County, Missouri, issue its general obligation bonds in the amount of $8,000,000 for the purpose of acquiring real property; constructing, improving, renovating, repairing, furnishing and equipping new and existing fire stations and additions thereto; and acquiring fire trucks, vehicles and other firefighting and emergency apparatus, equipment and communication systems and technology?”

Attached you will find a frequently asked question and answer sheet that will explain the needs of the fire district and the projects that will be funded by the NO TAX INCREASE bond funds.
